The 40 Frame Game consists of a variety of frames that are scored differently and which make up one continuous 40 frames as a single game. The types of frames that make up a 40 Frame Game are as follows:

- 9 Pin No Tap (9 or 10 pins on your first ball is the same as a strike)
- Bonus Frame (A strike earns you 10 additional points)
- Pay Day (A strike in a Pay Day frame wins you cash!)
- Sour Grapes (2 points are subtracted for each pin left standing on your first ball of the frame)
- Super Sour Grapes (5 points are subtracted for each pin left standing on your first ball of the frame)
- Mulligan (Don't like your first ball results? Erase the score and do it over again!)
- Classic/Regular Ten Pin Scoring (Just like regular bowling; nothing different)
- The Big Kahuna (A strike on you first ball is worth 25 extra points)
- Bingo-Bango-Bongo (Get all 3 and win a free practice 40 game. A $10 value.)

Confused? Don't be - scores are calculated automatically! Just relax, have some fun, & enjoy the game.
